

RU OK? PROGRAM
LIBERTY - RU OK? is a free service provided through the Liberty Police Department to check on the welfare of senior residents who live alone or may not have someone to check on them. Personnel from the Liberty Police Department will call at regular intervals to check to make sure all is well with the resident. To sign up for the program, contact Officer Whitehurst with the Liberty Police Department at 936-336-5666 or mwhitehurst@city-ofliberty.org. The program is offered to all senior residents of Liberty.

There were bibliophiles galore at the Liberty Municipal Library's Fall Book Sale, Sat., Oct. 10. Ladies of the Friends of the Liberty Library were moving quickly to keep up with the line of people waiting to pay for their purchases. Library Director Amber Ursprung told us that she and her staff members are making full use of this second-floor space at the library. The books were very organized and well-arranged for optimal viewing.

House age or roof alone can't be reason for insurance denial

Below is a Dick Law Firm consumer-education release on the Texas Department of Insurance's (TDI) Sept. 29 announcement that it is clarifying its rule that insurance companies can't decline or not renew a home insurance policy based on the age of a house or its roof; companies can still base decisions on the home's physical condition. For Liberty County readers, homeowners who get a notice citing the age of their house or roof can use the release's checklist, starting with reading the written reason the company gives. It is not a brand-new ban and it is not final: TDI will hear comments on the proposed amendment to 28 TAC §21.1006 at a Nov. 3 hearing under Docket No. 2874, and written comments are due by 5 p.m. Central on Nov. 9.
