

Always popular Macho Bingo coming up

DAYTON - It's that time again when Bridgehaven Children's Advocacy Center brings back the ever-popular Macho Bingo. It is s officially on the calendar for October 3 at the Dayton Community Center. So, mark your calendar and get ready for one of the most anticipated events of the year. Saddle up, win big, give big and play bingo for the night. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. Game play begins at 6 p.m. for those 18 and over. Tables for 10 are $650 with dinner and drinks included.

It's going to be an unforgettable Western-themed night full of games, auction items, good food, and big fun, all in support of Bridgehaven Children's Advocacy Center and the children served across Liberty and Chambers counties.

Every dollar raised at Macho Bingo helps continue the mission to bring hope, healing, and justice to children who are victims of abuse.

Sponsorship opportunities are now open and you can show your support in a big way with any of the multiple sponsorship opportunities available. By sponsoring this event, your business will receive valuable recognition, all while supporting a cause that matters.

JAMES BEVILL

'Spies in Saigon' author in Wallisville

WALLISVILLE - The History & Then Some Lecture Series at the Chambers County Museum at Wallisville continues Thursday, September 17, at 6 p.m.

Guest speaker James Bevell will present his book Spies in Saigon, a fascinating insight that brings to life gripping stories of the dangerous world of undercover spies, double agents, and covert CIA operations in Saigon, Vietnam, during the French-Indochina War. This untold prequel to the American war reveals the surprising depth of American and CIA involvement during the French War and the creation of the first Republic of Vietnam, which followed.

Bevell lives in Houston with his wife, Jodie Springer

Bevell. He is senior vice president at UBS Financial Services in River Oaks.

Seating is limited, so make your reservation today. Presentations of the History & Then Some series are held the third Thursday of each month. For more information, call 409-389-2252. The Chambers County Museum at Wallisville is located at 20136 IH-10 East.

Syrila Bossert,
WHNP-BC
Clinic Women's Health
Nurse Practitioner

Syrila is a native of Louisiana and was raised in Abbeville, Louisiana, by her single parent mom, Clementine Thiabeaux. She graduated with her BSN from Southeastern Louisiana University. While in nursing school she realized her desire to provide specific care in women's health. She was blessed to start her first year working as an RN on a Labor and Delivery floor. While working and living in Port Arthur, Texas, she had the opportunity and desire to return to school to become a Nurse Practitioner. After years of experience with women on labor and delivery it was a natural segue to specializing as a Women's Health Nurse Practitioner. She received her master's degree from University of Texas Health Science Center-Houston. She and her husband, Dean, live in Dayton and work in Liberty. They have sent three grown children out into the world.
