St. Paul MBC blessed with large supply

LIBERTY - The clothes and food pantry ministry of St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church is open every Saturday from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. The pantry offers food and clothing free of charge to all those in need who qualify. Cur-rently there is a large supply of adult pull-ups that are available at no cost. Clothing items are available in all sizes from infant to adult with a range of everyday wear to work and business cloth-ing.

As the weather turns colder, the ministry is ask-ing the community to bless them with donations of blankets, coats and gloves. New and gently used items are accepted.

Non-perishable food items are also available and donations are ac-cepted.

The pantry is located in the ministry building across from the Liberty-Dayton Regional Medical Center Hospital, next to the hospital helipad. For information, call Sister Williams at 409-208-1073.

New aids for locating materials at SHC

AUSTIN - The Texas State Library and Archives Commission (TSLAC) has announced new and revised finding aids recently made avail-able online, along with fresh uploads to the Texas Digital Archive, its repos-itory of electronic items.
