LIBERTY METHODIST CHURCH, 1904-1930

The third church occupied by the members of the Liberty Methodist Church is pictured at the corner of Main Street and Cos Avenue. It was constructed in 1904 and used for worship through 1930 when it was moved to the west side of the church property to make room for a new church on the corner. After a new brick structure replaced this frame building, it was then leased to the County of Liberty and used as a courtroom for 10 months during 1931, while the present Liberty County Courthouse was under construction.

LIBERTY METHODIST CHURCH, 1930-1953

This is the fourth church occupied by members of the Liberty Methodist Church who are planning homecoming March 20, 1977, for the present and former members and pastors. The church pictured was constructed in 1930 at the corner of Main Street and Cos Avenue. In 1953, after a new sanctuary had been constructed, this building was converted into the educational building and is still in use for that purpose. This building was completely remodeled and redecorated in 1974.
