From The Daytonite, Thursday, August 9, 1917 –

Daytonite Notes

Rev. Curtis of Palacios filled the pulpit at the Baptist Church Sunday morning. He is a brother-in-law of Robert Ashby and those who heard him pronounced it a splendid sermon.

J.F. Matthews of the Dayton Mercantile Company bought the first bale of new cotton here Friday and paid a premium price of $137.61 for it. Bartas Vyoral, a Bohemian farmer living near Eastgate raised the cotton.

A week's meeting will be held at Stilson school house beginning next Sunday at 4 p.m., August 12th instead of August 19th. Bro. Milton Coe will assist in the meeting. All are invited to attend and help in the service. – S.W. Edge

Mr. And Mrs. Jno. Carson, Misses Bertha Brisbin, Bessie Compton and Maude Alford and Steve Holt and Royce Matthews motored down to Lynchburg Monday night and enjoyed bathing in the bay.

Missionary Society of the Methodist Church is to have an ice cream party on the lawn at the J.H. Byerly home Friday the 17th. Cream and cake will be served. Everybody is invited to come have a good time and help a good cause.
