

HISTORY & FOLKLORE

From Liberty Gazette, Thursday, December 30, 1975 –

Bobby Bardwell, right, bagged this eight-pointer (minus one) above Hardin last week. It dressed out at about 160 pounds, so must have weighed some 200 pounds on the hoof. He says he backed up into a briar patch with a buckshot-loaded 12 gauge and greeted the animal when he came by.

Admiring the rack is E.B. Neuman Jr. with his sons Kyle and Ken looking on. Mutt Neuman, second from right, doesn't quite believe his eyes. Think of those poor guys who spent all that money going to Colorado!

From Liberty Gazette, Thursday, December 30, 1975 –

Willie Ray Johnson is usually behind a camera, but we caught him holding Braden Hillis' axis deer trophy he recently bagged at Kerrville. Braden was too bashful to pose with the spectacular hat rack. He says this animal carries the antlers in a splendid fashion through brush.

Available at the Liberty Gazette and R.A. Smith Gifts.

The Old Oil Field of Humble and Its Operation is a pictorial history of the oil field in Humble, Texas, which was active from 1905 to the 1940s. With photos, narratives and drawings, Dr. Braddick describes the equipment and how it was used, how wells were drilled and oil field operations. Readers interested in Texas history, engineering and oil field equipment will have a glimpse into the past that made Humble the city it is today.
