Syrila Bossert,
WHNP-BC
Clinic Women's Health
Nurse Practitioner

Syrila is a native of Louisiana and was raised in Abbeville, Louisiana, by her single parent mom, Clementine Thibeaux. She graduated with her BSN from Southeastern Louisiana University. While in nursing school she realized her desire to provide specific care in women's health. She was blessed to start her first year working as an RN on a Labor and Delivery floor. While working and living in Port Arthur, Texas, she had the opportunity and desire to return to school to become a Nurse Practitioner. After years of experience with women on labor and delivery it was a natural segue to specializing as a Women's Health Nurse Practitioner. She received her master's degree from University of Texas Health Science Center-Houston. She and her husband, Dean, live in Dayton and work in Liberty. They have sent three grown children out into the world.

Dayton Seniors see 'Painted Churches' in Schulenberg

DAYTON - On Tuesday, October 27, Dayton seniors traveled to Schulenberg, Texas, to tour the "Painted Churches." The group admired the craftsmanship and artistry of the early Texas settlers' churches. Built by Czech and German immigrants, these historic late 18th and early 19th century churches featured hand-painted murals, stenciling, faux marble columns and detailed gold leaf artwork. The stained-glass windows were a beautiful site to see.

Dennis Labeda from the Chamber of Commerce served as the guide. His presentation detailed lots of information and he explained how area residents labored using local materials to construct the structures.

After touring two churches, the group had a buffet luncheon at the Oakridge Smokehouse, where everyone enjoyed a variety of foods including sausage, sauerkraut, fried chicken, ribs and more. The afternoon was completed by visiting one last church before returning to Dayton.

This trip was sponsored by Dayton Senior Center, Inc., non-profit 501(c)(3). Thanks to Sherren Drake and Leora Boullion for scheduling and coordinating the trip. Senior outings are scheduled quarterly. Once plans are finalized for the next outing, information will be posted in the senior room of the Dayton Community Center.
