

Waltraut “Margie” Brown, a longtime Dayton resident who passed in 2018, is shown in this photo from 2007 at the age of 83 with her little dachshund Schnickelfritz taking a bit of exercise near her home. Waltraut’s knees had begun to bother her and she visited a doctor who informed her she was suffering from osteoarthritis. He advised her to take it easy. This advice didn’t sit well with Waltraut’s hard-working, energetic German nature so she took up riding her tricycle with a basket added so Schnickelfritz could join her for her exercise. When asked what Schnickelfritz meant in English, she said it meant “Sweetie.” Upon consulting the googler recently, we were informed that Schnickelfritz is an affectionate term for “young rascal,” undoubtedly appropriate for the tiny dachshund.
