Dayton Seniors take their quarterly trip to Museum of Natural Science

DAYTON - Dayton area seniors took a trip to the Museum of Natural Science in Houston on Tues., July 21, for a busy, informative, and fun day. The charter bus and departed the Dayton Community Center at 8:30 a.m. with lots of smiling faces aboard.

First on the agenda was the movie of NASA and space exploration in the Giant Screen Theatre. This was a great learning experience on how space ships are propelled into space and the new innovation of using centrifugal force rather than costly fuel. Afterward, time was allocated to tour all four floors of the museum and the exhibits, which included dinosaurs, Egyptian artifacts, mummies, history of oil, Texas native animal wildlife and more. A buffet lunch at the Golden Corral rounded out the day.

The outing was sponsored by Dayton Senior Center, Inc., a non-profit 501(c)(3). Organizers for the trip were Sherren

Drake and Leora Boullion.

Outings are scheduled quarterly and as details are determined, they are posted in the Senior Room of the Dayton Community Center. DSCI continues to provide lunch at 11 a.m. in the senior room on Monday and Wednesday at no charge to seniors over 55. No sign up required. Looking forward to seeing you there.
