SHC's Open House, Holiday Celebration set for Sat., Dec. 12

LIBERTY - The Sam Houston Regional Library and Research Center (SHC) invites members of the surrounding community to its annual Open House and Holiday Celebration on Saturday, December 12, from 5-8 p.m., held on its campus located at 650 FM 1011 in Liberty.

This family-friendly and free event offers live entertainment, refreshments, photo opportunities with Santa, story time with Mrs. Claus, and so much more in a festive environment decorated for the holiday season.

New this year is a musical lineup hosted in the Center's historic church that includes the Liberty Middle School Choir (6 p.m.), Liberty High School Choir (6:30 p.m.), and Mighty Panther Band (7 p.m.). The 1848 Gillard-Duncan House will also be open this year, with period-appropriate holiday decorations and historical reenactors

Guests may also visit the Center's museum and explore exhibits chronicling the history of Southeast Texas throughout the event. Museum visitors will have a chance to complete traditional crafts and learn more about the Center's historic holiday collections.

For more information, visit www.tsl.texas.gov/sh c/holiday or call (936) 336-8821.

The Bethlehem Experience, Dec. 11, 12, 13, at Calvary Baptist in Dayton

DAYTON - Step back in time and experience the story of Jesus' birth brought to life through an immersive Christmas experience. The Bethlehem Experience will take visitors through several important moments in the life of Jesus Christ.

The journey will begin with the angel appearing to Mary and continue through the birth of Jesus, the bustling Bethlehem marketplace, Jesus' childhood, His ministry and the healing of blind Bartimaeus, the crucifixion, and ultimately the empty tomb and resurrection. The experience will feature live actors, animals, authentic-looking marketplace scenes, biblical narration, music, and special effects designed to transport visitors back in time.

The event will take place December 11, 12 and 13, from 6-8:30 p.m. each evening at Calvary Baptist Church in Dayton. Admission is free. Refreshments and children's activities will be available before groups begin their guided journey. The experience will last roughly 30 minutes. The organizers are arranging overflow parking, transportation assistance, and golf cart accommodations to help visitors with mobility challenges.

For additional information or volunteer opportunities regarding The Bethlehem Experience, contact Suzanne Chachere at 936-334-5598.
